

HEMPLOOM[®]

HELPING YOU & MOTHER EARTH

At Hemploom India,
we believe in textiles that don't cost the Earth.
Our journey began with a simple idea — to create fabrics
that are kinder to people and the planet.
Hemp is one of the strongest natural fibers,
grown without harming the soil,
and spun into fabrics that are breathable,
soft, and built to last.

How We Work: From Plant to Product

1. Ethically Grown Hemp: We source high-quality hemp from trusted farms and partners, grown responsibly without harmful chemicals.
2. Spun into Yarn: The raw fiber is converted into premium yarns suitable for apparel, home furnishings, and accessories.
3. Designed for Impact: Every fabric is woven with care in controlled batches to ensure consistency, performance, and sustainability.
4. Tailored for Brands: From sampling to white-label production, we support designers, exporters, and eco-conscious labels globally.

A photograph of a textile mill interior. In the foreground, a metal frame holds numerous large spools of white thread. The spools are arranged in rows, and some have yellow labels. In the background, more industrial equipment, including a large ceiling fan and other spools, are visible. The lighting is bright, coming from overhead fixtures.
